

POSITION: ROOFING/WATERPROOFING INSPECTOR

Responsibilities include:

- Training with a senior EFVM® technician using EFVM® test equipment, testing roof and waterproofing membranes.
- Locate and document all membrane defects and prepare a final written report for client.
- Build a rapport and trust with subtrades and clients, while meeting our highest testing standards.
- Establish and meet different priorities to ensure project schedules are met in a timely manner.
- Travel by car or plane to project sites within the United States and Canada.
- Ability to break down and solve problems in a timely manner.

Skills & Qualifications include:

- Graduation from high school or equivalent
- Post-secondary education preferred
- Previous construction experience is an asset
- Possession of a valid and clean driving record/license
- Proficient in Microsoft applications such as Word, Excel and Outlook
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Comfortable working at heights

Competitive compensation and benefits offered for this full-time role.

To apply for this position, please send a resume and cover letter to: jobs@leak-detection.com