

POSITION: ROOFING/WATERPROOFING INSPECTOR

Responsibilities include:

- Training under a Senior EFVM® technician on the use of the EFVM test equipment, testing roof and waterproofing membranes.
- Locate and document all membrane defects in a final written report for our clients.
- Build a rapport and trust with subtrades and clients, while meeting our highest testing standards.
- Establishing and meeting different priorities to ensure project schedules are met and on time.
- Travel by car or plane to project sites within the United States
- Ability to break-down problems and solve problems in a timely manner.

Skills & Qualifications include:

- Graduation of High School or equivalent
- Post-secondary education preferred
- Previous construction experience is an asset
- Possession of a valid and clean driving record/license
- Proficient in Microsoft Applications such as Word, Excel and Outlook
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Comfortable with working on heights

Compensation: $50,000.00 to $65,000.00/year

Benefits offered: 401K, Travel Bonuses, Performance Bonus

Employment Type: Full Time

To apply for this position please send a resume and cover letter to:
jobs@leak-detection.com